

Appendix: Chronological Table of Notebooks of Excerpts, Manuscripts, Articles and Books on Political Economy from the 1843–58 Period

Year	Title	Description
1843-45	[Paris Notebooks]	9 notebooks of excerpts forming Marx's earliest studies of political economy.
1844	[Economic-Philosophical Manuscripts of 1844]	Unfinished manuscript composed in parallel with [Paris Notebooks] .
1845	[Draft of an Article on Friedrich List's book: Das Nationale System der Politischen Oekonomie]	Unfinished manuscript of an article against the German economist List.
1845	[Brussels Notebooks]	6 notebooks of excerpts concerning the basic concepts of political economy.
1845	[Manchester Notebooks]	9 notebooks of excerpts concerning economic problems, economic history and British socialist literature.
1846-47	Excerpts from von Gülich's Historical Account of Commerce	3 notebooks of excerpts concerning economic history.
1847	The Poverty of Philosophy	Polemical text against Proudhon's System of Economic Contradictions .
1849	Wage-Labour and Capital	5 articles published in Neue Rheinische Zeitung. Organ der Demokratie .
1850	Articles for Neue Rheinische Zeitung. Politisch-ökonomische Revue	Articles concerning the economic situation.
1850-53	[London Notebooks]	24 notebooks of excerpts focused mainly on political economy (in particular: history and theory of crises, money, some classics of political economy, condition of the working class, and technology).

1851	[Bullion. The Perfect Monetary System]	2 notebooks of excerpts compiled during the drafting of the [London Notebooks] , including quotations from the most important theories of money and circulation.
1851-62	Articles for the New-York Tribune	Approx. 70 articles on political economy, out of 487 published in this paper.
1855	[Quotations. Essence of money, essence of credit, crises]	1 notebook of excerpts summarizing the theories of the main economists on money, credit and crises.
1857	[Introduction]	Manuscript containing Marx's most extensive considerations on method.
1857-58	[Notebooks on the crisis]	3 notebooks with reports on the financial crisis events of 1857.
1857-58	[Grundrisse]	Preparatory manuscript for the Contribution to the Critique of Political Economy (1859).
